

OSI NEWSLETTER #17

The Year Ahead

General Economic Outlook – more momentum on the horizon. Washington Area Outlook – the same, plus the cushion of vigorous federal government activity. Outlook for Area Professionals and Entrepreneurs – likely better prospects, but maintaining cost disciplines, exercising creativity and ‘keeping up with the wave’ still useful. We will be trying to help you control your costs, be creative, and keep up with the wave(s).

OSI brings you 28 years of experience, a good lease on a prime K street location, an experienced staff, economical officing options, flexibility in service plans, sophistication in computer and communications capacities, and substantial networking opportunities among its over 700 clients. You can look forward with confidence in your officing system's ability to support your business needs adaptively and efficiently. We will be strengthening our communications with you in the months ahead. Stay in touch. Give us your suggestions. We look forward to helping you find continuing success in 2010.

Staying connected

We have set up forums so our clients can better share information and skills. We are introducing a Twitter feed, a Facebook page, and different email groups enabling members to network, find other professionals, and exchange ideas. To receive the latest deals, tips and client networking follow us on Twitter at <http://twitter.com/osioffices>, or, within Facebook, search for OSI Management.

To exchange information with us and with other members of OSI you can join one of our Google Groups -- osi-members, osi-attorneys, osi-mentalhealth. All members of OSI will be automatically invited to the general newsgroup. You will shortly receive an invitation to the appropriate newsgroups

Did you know you can check your monthly bill, payments to date, and pay your bill on-line? On the main website page, washoffice.com, click on the ‘Clients Login’ link which will give you an account of your bill and provide a business listing of other members. You can also add your business listing information. Please email manager@osioffices.com if your not aware of your password.
